LIFE OF THE MANNINGS

EXECUTED AT HORSEMONGER LANE GOAL
ON TUESDAY 13TH NOV 1849

SEE the scaffold it is mounted,
And the doomed ones do appear!
Seemingly borne wan with sorrow,
Grief and anguish, care and pain,
They cried the moments is approaching,
When we together must leave this life,
And no one has the least compassion,
On Frederick Manning and his wife.

Maria Manning came from Sweden,
Brought up respectable we hear,
And Frederick Manning came from Taunton
In the county of Somersetshire.
Maria lived with noble ladies,
In ease, and splendour, and delight,
But on one sad and fatal morning,
She was made Frederick Manning's wife.

She first was courted by O'Connor,
Who was a lover most sincere,
He was possessed of wealth and riches,
And loved Maria Roux most dear.
But she preferred her present husband,
As it appeared, and with delight,
Slighted, sore Patrick O'Connor,
And was made Frederick Manning's wife.

And when O'Connor knew the story,
Down his cheeks rolled floods of tears,
He beat his breast, and wept in sorrow,
Wring his hands and tore his hair,
Marie dear how could you leave me,
Wretched you have made my life,
Tell me why you did deceive me,
For to be Frederick Manning's wife.

At length they all were reconciled,
And met together night and day,
Maria by O'Connor's riches,
Dressed in splendour fine and gay.

Though married yet she conspired
With O'Conner all was right,
And oft he went to see Maria
Frederick Manning's lawful wife.

At length they plann'd their friend to murder
And for his company did crave,
The dreadful weapons they prepared,
And in the kitchen dug his grave,
And as they fondly did caress him,
They slew him—what a dreadful sight,
First they mangled, after robbed him,
Frederick Manning and his wife.

They absconded, but was apprehended,
And for the cruel deed was tried,
When placed at the bar of Newgate,
They both the crime strongly denied,
At length the jury them convicted,
And doomed them for to leave this life,
The judge pronounced the awful sentence,
On Frederick Manning and his wife.

Return he said to whence they brought you
From thence unto the fatal tree,
And there together be suspended,
Where multitudes your fate may see,
Your hours recollect is numbered,
You betrayed a friend and took his life,
For such there's not one spark of pity,
As Frederick Manning and his wife.

See what numbers are approaching,
To Horsemonger's fatal tree,
Full of bloom in health and vigour,
What a dreadful sight to see,
Old and young pray take a warning,
Remales lead a virtuous life,
Think upon that fatal morning,
Frederick Manning and his wife.

Summary David Smith is giving his life for his art -- literally. Thanks to a deal with Death, the young sculptor gets his childhood wish: to sculpt anything he can imagine with his bare hands. But now that he only has 200 days to live, deciding what to create is harder than he thought, and discovering the love of his life at the 11th hour isn't making it any easier! This is a story of desire taken to the edge of reason and beyond; of the frantic, clumsy dance steps of young love; and a street-level portrait of the world's greatest city. It's about the small, warm, human moments of everyday surface

It Takes a Village: Developing Library of Congress Genre/Form Terms

JANIS L. YOUNG

Policy and Standards Division, Library of Congress, Washington, DC, USA

YAEL MANDELSTAM

Leo T. Kissam Memorial Library, Fordham University School of Law, New York, New York, USA

The Library of Congress (LC) is in the process of developing a separate thesaurus of genre/form terms, which describe what a work or expression is, rather than what it is about. From the beginning, LC policy specialists realized that to accomplish this undertaking, it would be both necessary and desirable to collaborate with the library community. This article examines and evaluates the various methods of collaboration used by LC in the creation of the genre/form thesaurus.

INTRODUCTION

In 2007, the Cataloging Policy and Support Office of the Library of Congress, now the Policy and Standards Division (PSD), undertook an experiment to develop a thesaurus of genre/form terms in the discipline of moving images (films, television programs, and video recordings). The experiment was successful, and six more projects were added: non-musical sound recordings, chiefly radio programs; cartography; law; literature; music; and religion. Active development of the sound recording, cartography, and law projects is

Steps to Implementing Genre/Form at Kent State

1. Get buy-in from public services
2. Determine what we want to do (includes look at other libraries' OPACs)
3. Explain the plan to public services and administrators
4. Revise indexing tables
5. Re-index the database
6. Load the authority records
7. Implement the display decisions
8. Begin retrospective conversion projects

What were other OhioLINK Members doing?

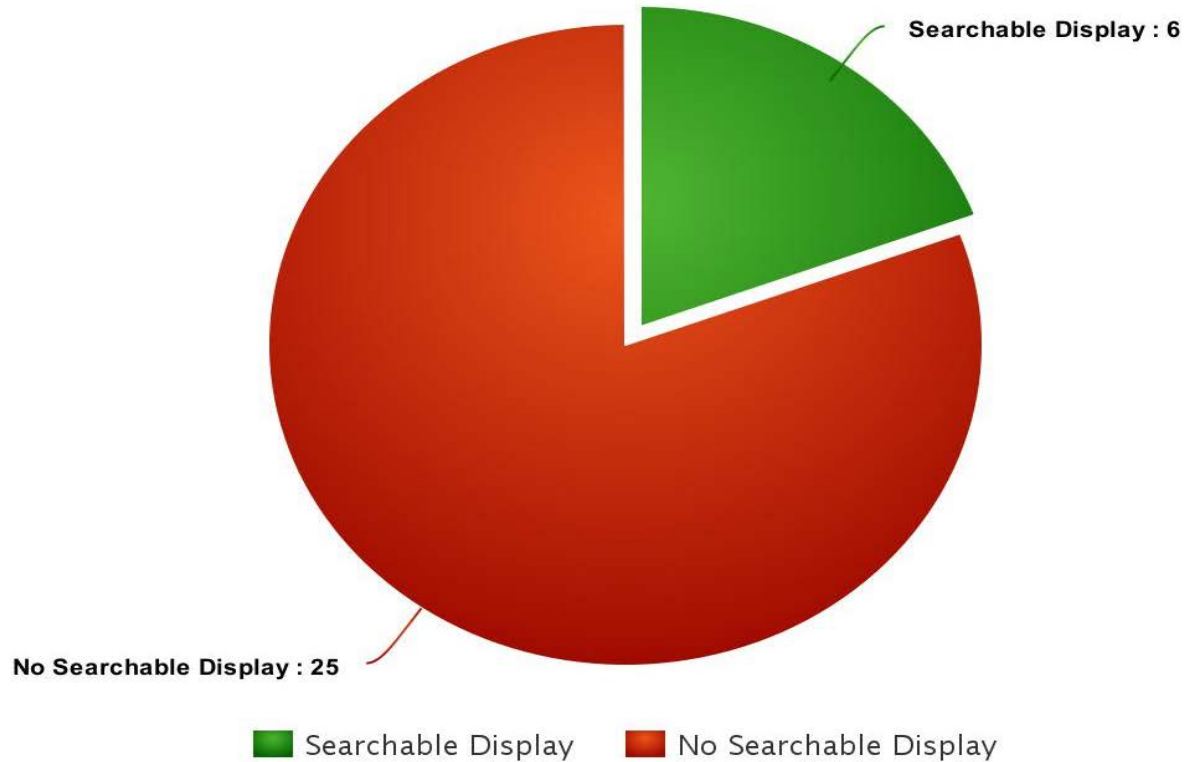

Three Things We Looked For

1. Whether there is an OPAC search option for genre/form headings
2. How are genre/form terms indexed in the catalog
3. Does the bib display have a line for genre/form and if so, whether or not the term was clickable

Potential Sources of Genre/Form Headings Found in KentLINK

- 650 0
 - Subject headings + some genre/form headings from the past before genre/form was treated separately.
- 650 7 -- 43,021 instances
- 655 0 -- 41,571 instances
 - Topical LCSH headings used as genre/form fields when there is no genre/form heading available.
- 655 7 #2 -- 162,495 instances
 - These make up the bulk of Kent's genre/form index.
 - Ill doesn't use #2 to separate thesauri.

Recommendations for Genre/Form at Kent State

1. Genre/Form should have its own index.
2. 6xx #v should be included in the genre/form index (RDA enrichment flipped ca. 510K #x subfields to #v).
3. Genre/Form headings should not be in the subject index.
4. Keyword index should include genre/form words.

Genre/Form Detailed Indexing

- Genre/Form index
 - Load all fields and subfields.
 - Include all first and second indicators.
 - Index 655 subfields a, b, v, x, y, z
 - Don't index 655 subfields c, 0, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8
 - Include #v from all other 6xx fields.
 - Load all genre/form authority records and allow cross references to conflict.

Genre/Form Detailed Indexing (cont.)

- Do not include 655 in subject index.
 - The point of creating a genre/form index is to have a special index for them, which we would lose if they're mixed in with subject headings.
 - Subjects are subjects and genre/form headings are a different thing.
 - Provides for cleaner data going forward.
 - The keyword index already provides everything in one place.

Retrospective Cleanup

Retrospective Cleanup Principles

- Before: 650 0 Abstracts #v Periodicals
After: 655 7 Abstracts. #2 lcgft
 655 7 Periodicals. #2 lcgft
- Much of our database will have genre/form headings in subject fields. We are cataloging for the future, from this point onward.
- We'll try to fix legacy data as time permits.
- Focus on projects that will accomplish the most with the least amount of effort.
- If in doubt, don't change the tag.

Retrospective Cleanup Ideas

- Send 655's to authority control vendor; have them change gsaft headings to lcgft.
- Flip existing headings with #2.
 - 655 0 with #2 for genre/form codes -- flip tags to 655 7.
 - 650 7 headings with #2 for genre/form codes -- flip to 655's.
- Use bib 338 (carrier) fields to find genre/form terms.
- Use fixed fields to help find genre/form terms.
 - LIT FORM for literature.
 - MAT TYPE for audiovisual, combined with subject headings.
- Convert subject headings to lcgft terms.

Ongoing Cataloging in a Genre/Form World

- Copy Catalogers accept genre/form headings without examining them.
- Catalogers add genre/form headings to records if applicable.
- Authority Control vendor (Backstage) supplies genre/form authority records quarterly.
- Conflicts between thesauri headings are treated by III's AACCP as invalid headings.

Final Report to the Council

Summary

- Lots of planning to make sure we got the indexing right.
- Went smoother than anticipated.
- Is appreciated by our users and reference staff.
- Lots of cleanup remains; search results are only as good as the data coding and input.
